PROFILE

HR Director with 16 years in HR: 5+ years in HRD roles and 5+ years as HR Business Partner. Built the HR function three times in new businesses from the ground up with limited resources — from zero to a full-scope function: recruitment, C&B, job grading, assessment, learning & development, communications, HR administration. Supported M&A deals and joint venture launches; managed international teams across Russia, CIS and Europe, including a network of 14 offices worldwide. Partner in a full-cycle HR consulting practice (Gradex) with a proprietary AI-powered job grading platform in its toolkit.

Looking for an HR leadership role with a broad scope of responsibility and a matching level of authority. In the HR function I value service mindset and technological edge.
